IMPORTANT INFORMATION

International Riders

CSI3* / 4*

Top UK & International riders from the FEI February Ranking List published at the beginning of March 2026, will be accepted in line with the FEI invitational system. These riders are invited to apply as soon as the FEI schedule is published via their National Federation.

CSI 3*/4* athletes that compete in any of the Longines Ranking Classes can compete in CSI YH* and CSI 1* but not in the CSI Am sections.

The Puissance will form part of the CSI 3* in week 1.
The Mini Major will form part of the CSI 1* in week 2.
The Ride & Drive will form part of the CSI 1* each week.

Only riders and horses entered in the appropriate tours will be allowed to compete in these classes.

CSI1*, YH, CH, U25s, P & AM

Please note a full FEI passport is not required for athletes competing in their home country at CSI-Amateur, CSI 1*, CSI-CH, U25s, CSI-Ponies and CSI-YH.

Please note

Entry Fees include standard stabling, two bales of shaving on arrival only (additional bales will not be given at the start of week two for horses already on site). Additional Tack boxes, Barn Stabling Upgrade & Bedding/Feed can be booked online via the Equipe App.

Accreditation will be given for Rider, Partner & Groom plus 2 additional owner passes per horse.

All riders will automatically have a compulsory hook up charge added to their account, together with FEI MCP/ Muck Removal charges, and First Aid/ Veterinary charges in addition to Entry Fees.

For Riders leaving after week 1, £75 per horse will automatically be charged to the riders Equipe account, which will be removed if the stables are left totally empty of all bedding.

Entry Fees

ALL PRICES QUOTES EXC. VAT

Entry Fees will be as published in the FEI Schedule. Riders competing in Amateur classes will not be eligible for LR classes but can enter horses for all other sections. U25 will have a consolation class for horses not qualified for the Final.
